

St. Augustine Florida

The oldest continuously active Catholic faith community in the continental United States.

This booklet belongs to

*St. Paul Catholic School
Jacksonville Beach, FL
April, 2014*

Mission of Nombre de Dios

- _____ founded St. Augustine, and he with a band of settlers landed on this site on _____ (month, day, year).
- Father _____, Spanish Diocesan Priest, also came and offered the first parish Mass in this land.
- The Great Cross is _____ feet tall and filled with _____ to keep it steady. It was built here because _____

- Along the path by the Great Cross, there is a map on a plaque that shows _____

- On the Mission grounds, the early Spanish settlers established the first Shrine ever in the United States to be dedicated to the _____.

- On the mission grounds there is a statue of _____ to commemorate all the Franciscan missionaries that came to teach the Catholic faith and begin missions in Florida.

- There are Sisters of _____ buried in the fenced in gravesite. They died of _____ during the epidemic.

- The rustic altar reminds us of _____,

Fr. Miguel O'Reilly Museum

- Father Miguel O'Reilly was the _____

- Fr. O'Reilly willed the house to a religious group that was in _____
The _____

- were given the house to live in. They came from LePuy, _____ in order to _____

- The herb garden in front of the house is unique because it is the only herb garden that _____

- The O'Reilly House is made of _____ and was built in _____

- The first Bishop of St. Augustine was Bishop _____

- One item of interest you learned about in the O'Reilly

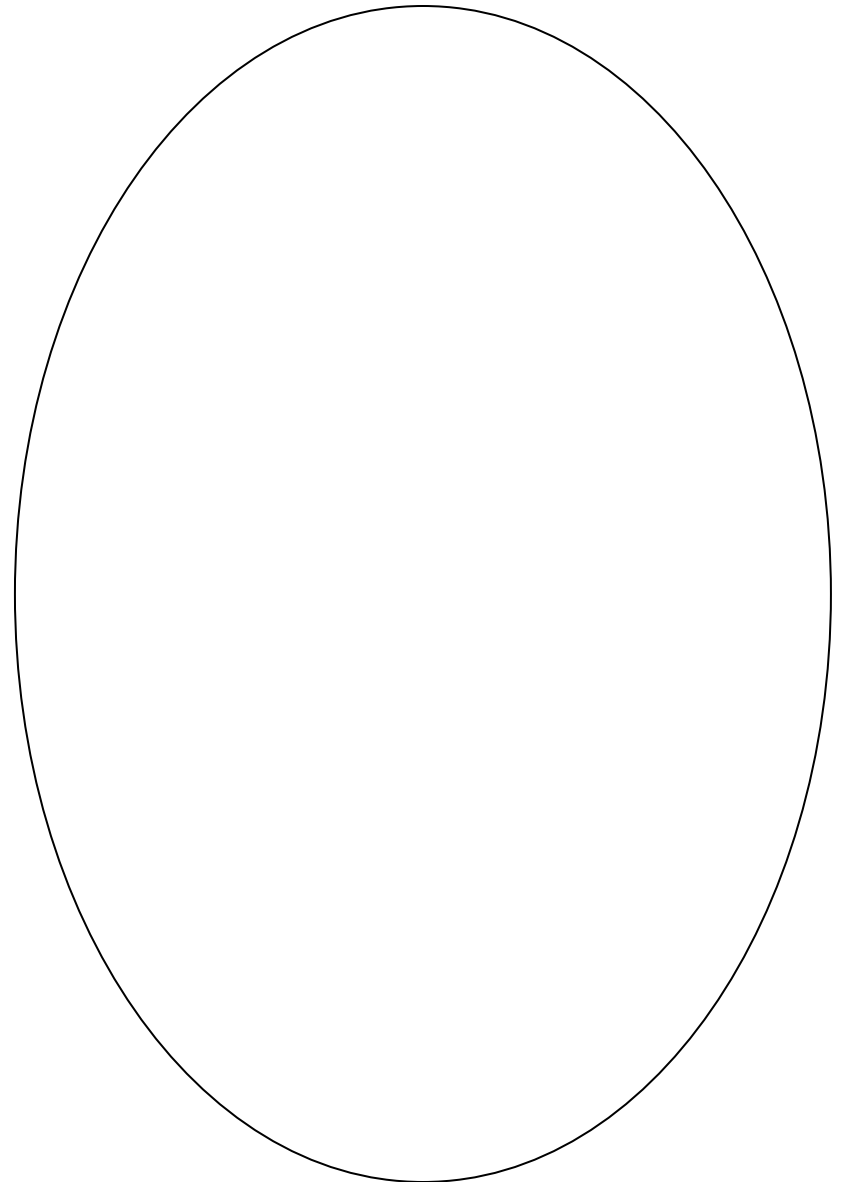

House and Museum is _____

_____.

Sketch from the O'Reilly House and Museum.

Sketch from Nuestra Senora de la Leche Shrine.

Cathedral-Basilica of St. Augustine

- The original structure was built in _____, and Fr. _____ was the priest who began building it. Fr. _____ was there to complete it and became its first pastor.
- The coat of arms remind us of _____
- There is a side altar with a statue of _____ dedicated to all the Irish priests and Sisters that came to minister in Florida.
- There is a side altar with a statue of _____ dedicated to the Sisters of St. Joseph for the ministry to educating the freed slaves.
- The explorer _____ is depicted in the murals on the west (left) side of the sanctuary.

- The stained glass windows depict the life of _____
- One item of interest is the _____ because _____

