

Biographical Information for Seminarian Armon Antolin

I was born and raised in Jacksonville, Florida. My parents laid a solid foundation for my faith upon which I am now building every single day. I was raised in a Filipino culture at home: eating the unique cuisine, watching Filipino TV, and speaking Tagalog with my parents.

I graduated from Christ the King, which is also my home parish. I moved on to Bishop Kenny High School and graduated in 2012. I knew deep within myself, even when I was younger, that God might be calling me to the priesthood and I actually started my formal discernment in my high school years. With God's grace, I was accepted into our Diocese as a seminarian on February 13, 2012.

I spent four years at St. John Vianney College Seminary and graduated in 2016. In college seminary, I was able to grow in a deeper understanding in myself so as to continue or improve my strengths and weaknesses for the service of God's people.

I look forward to growing closer and closer to our Lord and fulfilling His dream for me, with the help of Mama Mary, the support of my family, and the prayers of our community. God willing, I will be able to, one day, serve the community, and possibly you, as a priest.

Keep all our seminarians in your prayers and we will continue praying for you. God Bless you. Mama Mary loves you.
