DIOCESE OF ST. AUGUSTINE

Office of the Bishop

April 14, 2022

To the faithful of the Diocese of St. Augustine,

Saint Paul tells us that God wants everyone to be saved and reach the fullness of life in Jesus.

The Church has the mission of giving us all the means so that we all can be saved by the paschal mystery of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, the Church exists to evangelize and be the universal sacrament of salvation. Pope Francis gives us an image: a Church is like a field hospital with wounded.

I give thanks for the gigantic effort to the Hispanic ministry pastoral agents on their development of a pastoral plan to achieve a true pastoral ministry. His vision is to look for unity in diversity. His goal is the same as Jesus left us: "Go and make disciples of all nations." And the means to achieve it: promote greater formation, achieve greater belonging as missionary disciples, promoting the works of mercy without any exclusion.

Pope Saint John Paul II guided us with a spirituality of communion. The Eucharist is the soul of every apostolate and is the goal of all our activity. And it is what animates our apostolic action.

Bless them in the name of the Lord,

F. Estévez

Bishop Felipe de Jesus Estévez

I. HISTORY OF THE HISPANIC MINISTRY IN THE DIOCESE OF SAN AGUSTIN

The Diocese of St. Augustine was officially founded on March 11, 1870, but its history began in the 16th century. On September 8, 1565, a group of Spaniards celebrated the first Mass on the shores of North Florida. They named it St. Augustine in honor of the saint of the day their Atlantic expedition first sighted land; on August 28.

St. Augustine is the oldest city in the United States and its Cathedral Basilica serves the oldest parish. Documents dating from 1594 are preserved in the archives of the Diocese. The Diocese of St. Augustine consists of 17 counties, located in northeast Florida, from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic Ocean; covering 11,032 square miles and serving 163,525 registered Catholics.

From October 1979 to August 21, 2001, this Diocese was directed by Bishop John Joseph Snyder, who from the beginning expressed his concern for the Hispanic community. After the II National Hispanic Encounter and with the collaboration of Rev. Mario Vizcaíno and Rev. Antonio León, the Hispanic Ministry began to be organized in this diocese.

In 1983 Bishop Snyder opened an office in the Catholic Center to serve the Hispanic community; At the same time, he created a Hispanic commission to coordinate and plan services and spiritual and social activities for Hispanics who come to the diocese.

The first director of the Hispanic apostolate was the Spanish-born priest Rev. Antonio León, who was the pastor of the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Jacksonville. The first director of the office was Mrs. Nancy Valdivieso, who initially served as a volunteer for one year. At the beginning, the Office of Hispanic Ministry did not have an assigned budget. In 1985 Bishop Snyder appointed Rev. Luis F. Florez, diocesan director of the Hispanic Ministry, full time until April 2004. It should be noted that many apostolic movements and groups were emerging and gave impetus to the "Hispanic Pastoral Ministry" in the Diocese of Saint Augustine. The first Cursillo de Cristiandad in Spanish was held in 1980; this movement was the primary source for so many leaders serving in Hispanic ministry.

On August 21, 2001, Monsignor Victor B. Galeone was ordained and installed Bishop of the Diocese of St. Augustine in succession to Bishop Snyder. Responding to the dramatic increase in the Hispanic population in North Florida and the needs of the ever-growing Hispanic community, it was agreed to bring in the help of Spanish-speaking nuns and priests. In 2002, Monsignor Galeone invited the Religious of Mary Immaculate, Claretian Missionaries and established a mission in the west of the Diocese.

At the end of 2004 the Diocese acquired an old Baptist temple in the center of the city of Mayo. That temple was converted into the Catholic Mission Our Lady of Guadalupe, to serve the communities of the area, under the pastoral care of the Claretian Missionaries. The first Hispanic seminarian also arrived from Colombia to our diocese, today the Rev. Jhon Fredy Guarnizo, who was the first Hispanic priest ordained in this diocese.

In 2004, responding to the challenge of the cultural diversity of our diocese and following a new model of ministerial structure, the office of African American Ministry was unified with the Office of Hispanic Ministry, forming the office of Multicultural Ministry. Fathers James R. Boddie and Rev. Rodolfo Godinez were the first moderators appointed by Bishop Galeone for this new ministry. In 1998, Mrs. Alba Orozco began directing the Hispanic Ministry, and later she was appointed Coordinator of the Multicultural Office until today.

On April 27, 2011, H.H. Pope Benedict XVI appointed Monsignor Felipe de Jesús Estévez as Bishop of the Diocese of St. Augustine, who took office on June 2 of the same year.

The Office of Multicultural Ministry was located in the Providence Center until December 2019; it was later moved to 3100 University Blvd Suite 220, Jacksonville FL 32216.

- With works and gestures, dare
- Walking together with Jesus
- Bearing fruit of new life
- Celebrating the joy of being missionary disciples

Using the well-known methodology of “See-Judge-Act”, which prepared us for the mission, as “Missionary Disciples; Witnesses of the Love of God”; it was a call to review ourselves as a diocese, parish, and mission leaders. V. Mission Statement

We, the parishioners of the Diocese of St. Augustine, are called to share the good news of the kingdom of God. Through the sacrament of Baptism God sent us to be Priests, prophets, and kings, that is why we as Baptized have the responsibility to evangelize our brothers and thus fulfill the mandate of Jesus "Go and make disciples of all". The easiest and simplest way is our testimony and our example of life. We must be true servants of the word of God, be strong in our convictions of faith, and be meek and humble of heart, so that we can fulfill the task of the Gospel reaching out to the peripheries, in a synodality spirit, to be one in Christ which is our head. May our Mother, the Most Holy Virgin, under the invocation of Our Lady of Milk, be our light, be our faithful companion on this path, may we be like her and as the angel told her, do not be afraid, because the work of God will take place.

VI. CONCLUSION

The Diocesan Pastoral Plan for Hispanic Ministry of the Diocese of St. Augustine, has been renewed after a deep discernment, with the participation of the parish communities and apostolic movements of our diocese, we were challenged to concrete actions to be carried out in a Synodality spirit.

Our intention and recommendation is that when you receive this Pastoral Plan, it will serve as a guide, without forgetting that each one is called by God to continue the mission of Jesus and to renew the commitment of baptism, working in the construction of the Kingdom of God and for a fairer society, imbued with evangelical values, where everyone makes their contribution; don't forget the young and the vulnerable; that everyone feels an evangelizing, missionary, welcoming church with open doors. Where we are doing our part of the challenge that Pope Francis asks of us, when he invites us to live the Synod and Synodality.
